Privacy Collection Notice – Doping Report

This notice describes how we, Sport Integrity Australia (SIA), collect and manage personal information when you submit a Doping Report using the 'Make an Integrity Complaint or Report – Doping Report' form on our website, or when you contact us another way to submit a Doping Report (such as over the phone or by email).

Collection:

We collect your personal information from you when you submit a Report using the 'Make an Integrity Complaint or Report – Doping Report' form, or when you contact us another way to submit a Report (such as over the phone or by email).

You are not required to provide your personal information when you submit a Report.

However, any information provided in your Report, including any personal information, may be used to identify you and obtain relevant information relating to your Report. We may also use your personal information to communicate with you throughout any investigation that Sport Integrity Australia may undertake in relation to your Report.

Collection of this information is authorised under the Sport Integrity Australia Act 2020 (SIA Act) and the National Anti-Doping scheme (NAD scheme), contained in schedule 1 of the Sport Integrity Australia Regulations 2020 (SIA Regulations).

If you choose to disclose your personal information when you submit a Report, it is highly unlikely you will be identified to the person/s named in your Report. If we intend to disclose your identity to the person/s named in your Report, we will seek your consent before doing so.

If you do not provide your personal details, we will be unable to communicate with you regarding your Report.

Use and disclosure:

We ordinarily use and disclose the above personal information to deal with your Report. This includes:

- using the information provided in your Report to contact you or, in some circumstances, other identified parties to obtain further information about the information provided
- if your Report includes information about potential imminent harm, an ongoing risk of harm or information about criminality, we may provide your details or information relating to your Report to a relevant law enforcement body, sporting organisation, or other relevant parties

- information you provide in your Report may be de-identified and used to understand trends and patterns of issues that may be present in a sporting organisation. We may use this information to better understand the nature of integrity issues in Australian sport, and to support the development of programs to prevent and better respond to integrity threats in sport.

In addition to the above, we may disclose your personal information to:

- a National Sporting Organisation
- other sporting organisations
- law enforcement
- a tribunal, committee, or other investigative body.

In certain circumstances, we may disclose your personal information overseas to:

- international law enforcement
- international sporting organisations, such as an International Federation
- the International Olympic Committee
- a National Anti-Doping Organisation as defined in the World Anti-Doping Code
- the World Anti-Doping Agency (WADA) who are headquartered in Montreal, Canada
- a tribunal, committee, or other investigative body.

In some circumstances we are permitted to disclose your personal information without your consent, as set out under Part 8 of the SIA Act. This may include disclosure to certain bodies and persons described in section 68B(3) of the SIA Act and disclosure to reduce a threat to life or health, as set out in section 68C of the SIA Act.

Further Information:

SIA's Privacy Policy contains important information including:

- how you can access and seek correction of personal information we hold about you
- how to make a complaint if you have a concern or believe SIA may have breached an Australian Privacy Principle.
