

NATIONAL INTEGRITY FRAMEWORK MEMBER PROTECTION POLICY

The Member Protection Policy is designed to protect the welfare, wellbeing, and health of everyone involved in sport. It provides clear definitions of abuse, bullying, harassment, sexual misconduct, discrimination, victimisation and vilification in sport, along with information on how to report these behaviours.

Specifically, the Policy provides a framework to:

- promote a safe, trustworthy, and enjoyable environment at all levels, by protecting everyone in sport from discrimination, harassment, bullying and abuse
- protect the health, welfare, wellbeing, and safety of participants by ensuring everyone involved in sports is treated with respect and dignity
- ensure everyone in sport is aware of their legal and ethical rights and responsibilities, and the standards of expected behaviour
- protect the integrity of sport by reducing the risks of unacceptable behaviours.

Who does this Policy apply to?

The Policy applies to everyone involved in sport including participants, employees, coaches, officials, contractors and support personnel, at all levels, from the national level through to club sport.

The Policy only applies in relation to direct involvement in a sport activity or event. If an interaction has no clear link to a sporting event or activity, the Policy may not apply, and may be more appropriately dealt with under a different Policy, code of conduct or other sport rules.

What is the reporting process?

All people involved in sport must report conduct that may be considered Prohibited Conduct under this Policy Sport Integrity Australia. This can be done by filling in the online form at www.sportintegrity.gov.au/making-integrity-complaint-or-report.

What happens if someone commits a breach of this Policy?

Any alleged Prohibited Conduct that is reported will be dealt with under the Complaints Disputes and Discipline Policy. This could result in a sanction ranging from a warning or mandatory education to a ban from sport. Criminal conduct will be managed outside of this process by law enforcement.
