

Framework built on teamwork

Consultation snapshot

Since launching in March 2021, the National Integrity Framework has continued to evolve and progress through collaboration across Australian sport. The updated 2026 NIF policy templates reflect the feedback and experiences shared by the sport sector and other stakeholders.

Sport Integrity Australia thanks you for your cooperation and ongoing commitment to delivering safe and fair sport, together.

3

phases of consultation

over 10 months
inviting input from 200+
organisations
in sport and specialist fields

76 survey responses
+
12 feedback
submissions

Club and participation representatives such as Play By the Rules
Coalition of Major Professional and Participation Sports
(COMPPS)
Community Sport
Australia
(a represented group of state sport federations)

- Peak Federal Government sport agencies, including the Australian Sports Commission, National Sports Tribunal and Office for Sport
- State and Territory departments of sport and recreation through the Jurisdictional Sport Integrity Network (JSIN)
- High Performance institutes and academies in the National Institute Network, including the AIS and the State Institutes and Academies of Sport

Major Games partners including the Australian Olympic Committee,
Paralympics Australia
and Commonwealth
Games Australia

Child safeguarding expertise from National Office for Child Safety, Australian Federal Police, and state regulatory bodies

Leading agencies
such as the eSafety Commissioner and Human Rights Commission

- Athlete representatives including the SIA Athlete Advisory Group and Australian Athletes Alliance
- Diversity and inclusion expertise, including Pride in Sport, the Australian Disability Network and SIA Safety & Culture Advisory Committee

- Advisory Groups including the Australian Sports Drug Medical Advisory Committee (ASDMAC), and SIA Advisory Council and victim survivors in sport