

Reporting and responding to a breach of the SAFEGUARDING CHILDREN AND YOUNG PEOPLE POLICY

As a person involved in sport, you play a crucial role in protecting children and young people. You must follow the actions below if you suspect there has been an alleged breach of the policy.

Click here for a text alternative to this flowchart

An alternate text description of the Sport Integrity Australia Safeguarding Children and Young People policy flowchart

The flowchart begins with the question asking if the Child/Young Person is at risk of immediate harm?

If you answer yes, Call 000 immediately.

If you answer no, the next question asks if you have reasonable grounds to suspect a child/young person may be at risk of harm and it involves possible criminal conduct (e.g. physical or sexual assault or grooming)?

If you answer yes to suspecting possible criminal conduct, contact your local police on 131 444 and make a report to your state or territory child protection agency.

If you answer no to suspecting possible criminal conduct, answer if you believe there has been an alleged breach of the Safeguarding Children and Young People Policy? In the context of this question, an alleged breach of the Policy includes any other Prohibited Conduct that should otherwise be reported to Sport Integrity Australia or your sporting organisation. This includes bullying, harassment, discrimination, harmful training methods or failure to properly supervise and protect children and young people from harm.

If you answer no to an alleged breach, there is no further action required.

If you answer yes to an alleged breach, make a report to Sport Integrity Australia by scanning the QR code and filling out the online report form on the Sport Integrity Australia website. You can also report it directly to your Sporting Organisation. There is the option to also call the Safe Sport Hotline for support on 1800 161 361.

If you:

- answered yes to the first question of "Is the child/young person at risk of immediate harm?" and you have called 000 and contacted emergency services, or
- you answered yes to suspecting, on reasonable grounds that a child/young person may be at risk of harm and it involves possible criminal conduct, and you have called 131 444 and made a report to your state or territory child protection service

Please answer the next question of "Do you believe the alleged Child Abuse is occurring within the sporting organisation/environment?"

If you answer no to the alleged child abuse occurring within a sporting organisation/environment, there is no further action required.

If you answer yes, make a report to Sport Integrity Australia by scanning the QR code and filling out the online reporting form on the Sport Integrity Australia website. You can also report it directly to your Sporting Organisation. There is the option to also call the Safe Sport Hotline for support on 1800 161 361.

Click here to return to the flowchart graphic